THE HERALD.

The birth of a baby girl is reported to the wife of Doc Kash.

Miss Rebecca Hollon of Holly was here doing some shopping Monday.

Miss Etta Swango was the guest of Mrs. S. B. Kash Tuesday night.

Mrs. S. B. Kash sold 27 hats during Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Quite a crowd of citizens attended the commencement exercises of the Campton academy.

Misses Nannie Bayes and Alice Murphy paid our office a pleasant call Tuesday evening.

Dr. Taulbee reports the birth of a boy to the wife of Bruce Nickell, May 18th—John Taulbee Nickell.

Misses Lizzie Linden and Rosa Little of Gillmore were here Monday, and bought hats of Mrs. S. B. Kash.

Miss Lizzie Caskey of Goodwin's chapel was here Tuesday shopping, and bought a fine hat of Maggie, the milliner.

Sam Hounshell pulled out for Lexington last week, and avowed his intention of joining the army as soon as he got there.

DYSPEPSIA is the cause of untold suffering. By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla the digestive organs are toned and dyspepsia IS CURED.

On Sunday at the Christian church the topics for sermons will be, at 11 a. m., "The Mission of the Church," and at 8 p. m., "Two Invitations."

Dr. J. M. Kash is at White Oak, where he was called to see a patient, and he will spend a few days there with friends before returning home.

Mountain merchants should read the advertisement of J. A. Shuttleworth & Co., manufacturers and jobbers of men's, boys' and children's clothing, Louisville.

For children who take cold easily and are subject to the croup, no remedy is so helpful as Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. It should be in every house ready for an emergency.

It was currently reported here during the first of the week that Bob Dicken, the bricklayer who was a sojourner among us the past winter, had joined the army at Lexington.

Among the new advertisements in this issue will be found the card of Green & Sons, boots and shoes, Louisville, and the attention of our readers is directed to a careful reading of it.

Mendel, Gosling & Co., dealers in hats, caps, straw goods, gloves and umbrellas, Louisville, have a card in this issue to which the merchants of the mountains should direct their attention.

Marks & Stix, manufacturers and jobbers of boots, shoes and rubbers, 3 West Pearl street, Cincinnati, have a card in this issue to which the attention of our country merchants is especially directed.

J. T. Day asks the ladies of Hazel Green and vicinity to call and inspect his new line of millinery and wall paper. Spring and summer styles in hats, and made up in the most elegant and artistic style.

According to the gossip of Hazel Green Miss Ida Catron of Pomeroyton and our own Jimmie Hanks of Campton, the efficient deputy sheriff, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony yesterday morning.

Misses Lydia Ledford and Eva Jackson, of Spencer, are visiting relatives and friends here, and will remain until after the commencement at Hazel Green academy, of which institution they were former pupils.

J. T. Day is this week opening up the largest and most select stock of goods seen in this section in many years, and Mr. McLin tells us that the prices will be lower than the same class of goods were ever before sold for.

The Rothwell and Salyersville Railroad.
The news comes from Frankfort that on Thursday last the Red River Valley Railroad Company, with $25,000 capital stock, filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. The road runs from Rothwell to Salyersville, a distance of 45 miles, 10 miles of which have been built. Wm. Hubbard, Jr., Jas. Muir and Albert French are among the incorporators, and the road is evidently that one now running to Michigan, a shanty town on top of Beaver hill.

As this road is pointing this way on its passage to Salyersville the contemplation of its completion would afford us much pleasure were it not for the story that Billy Mize tells on ex-Senator J. M. Pieratt of Ezel. Recalling the fact that about nine years ago one Mr. Spaulding had in contemplation the "Blue Diamond," or some other equally brilliant bunco scheme, Mr. Mize says that he was in Frankfort when Senator Pieratt received word from Spaulding that he would be at Ezel on a certain date to locate the line.

"The line runs right through my property," remarked the excited senator when he had finished reading the letter, "and I must be there to have my barn, smokehouse, etc., moved so as to give them the right of way. Oh, I do wish the legislature would adjourn."

"You'll have plenty of time to move the buildings before they break dirt," interjected Mr. Mize, by way of pacification.

"Time! Why, man, the road will be built at once, and I want to move off the buildings so as to be sure of securing it across my lands. It means much to me."

Nothing more was said, but as the "Blue Diamond" was then in the most tangible shape it ever assumed—a fairly well defined route on paper—the inference is as plain as the proboscis of a Polish Jew.

Uncle Rastus Brooks had the fatted baby bovine ready to butcher when Arbury, the prodical returned, but Bob put a period to the proceedings by exclaiming: "Hold on, pap: Arbury's been having a good time eating cove oysters and riding on the street cars, and here I've been plowing that hillside while he was playing soldier. If you want to feed him, set out some bacon and greens, and let him then pull off his coat and help to make the 'crap.'" Mr. Brooks meditated a minute and then replied, "Robert, I guess you are right," and thus fatally terminated Arbury's intended feast.

The quarterly meeting of the M. E. church south will be held at Rose chapel on Lacy creek, next Saturday and Sunday. Presiding Elder Ragan will be present, and probably Bro. Moore, also. There will be a basket dinner Sunday, or in other words, dinner on the ground, and an enjoyable time is anticipated.

Mrs. Lou Day is in Lexington and has had one of her eyes operated upon. She was prostrated from the operation, however, and was taking a needed rest prior to having the other eye treated. She hopes to be able to return home about the first of next week.

Blood and Nerves are very closely related. Keep the blood rich, pure and healthy, with Hood's Sarsaparilla and you will have no nervousness.

Chronic Dyspepsia Cured.

AFTER suffering for nearly thirty years from dyspepsia, Mrs. H. E. Dugdale, wife of a prominent business man of Warsaw, N. Y., writes: "For 28 years, I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and a weak stomach. The lightest food produced distress, causing severe pain and the formation of gas. No matter how careful of my diet I suffered agonizing pain after eating. I was treated by many physicians and tried numerous remedies without permanent help. Two years ago I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and Nerve. Within a week I commenced improving, and persisting in the treatment I was soon able to eat what I liked, with no evil effects. I keep them at hand and a single dose dispels any old symptoms."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

GRANT'S ILLNESS.

Said Not to Have Been Due Entirely to Tobacco—Cancer from Pipe Smoking.

Notwithstanding all the good arguments that have been offered against the evils of excessive smoking, it can hardly be claimed that the habit is entirely responsible for the production of cancer of the lips, mouth or throat, says the New York Herald. Since the illness of Gen. Grant it has been the popular belief that the dreaded disease from which he suffered was caused by his overindulgence in tobacco. Thus it may be easy to believe from a report that another victim of tobacco has been added to the long list of similar sufferers.

The facts, however, in these cases do not by any means confirm the theory. It was well settled in Gen. Grant's case that tobacco in itself was not the initiative cause of his throat trouble, but merely induced a subsequent aggravation of symptoms by the extra irritation of the smoke passing over the already diseased surface.

It is quite true that cancer of the lips is very common among pipe smokers, but the real factor of harm is not the tobacco or any special poison it may contain, but the persistent, localized irritation of the pipestem. Clay pipes, above all others, are particularly harmful, as they are the most easily heated, have a rough surface for the lip, are mostly used by persistent smokers and are usually held stationary on one side of the mouth, all of which tends to focalize and intensify the irritation which determines the malignant growth. The first indication of the disease is a watery patch on the lip at the usual point of contact with the pipestem. When discovered early it is perfectly amenable to surgical treatment, the percentage of cures being larger than that of any other form of cancer.

RUSSIA AND CHINA AT ONE.

Report That the Czar Would Facilitate the Exportation of Celestial Products.

The intimacy of China and Russia has most profound causes, says the Chautauquan. The Chinese have a very distinct feeling of their interests. Between Russia and Chinese interests there is no opposition; there is similitude. England, the United States, Germany and France have only one object: To make of China an immense market for the product of their industry, to impose upon it, by force, if need be, their merchandise. On the contrary, Russia and Japan seek to facilitate the exportation in Europe of Chinese products. Russia, with its railroads, will be the middleman between producing China and consuming Europe. The Russian provinces produce nothing which China furnishes; they have every advantage in being put in contact with the innumerable population of the Celestial empire.

The immense current of exchanges which will be established between China and Russia by the new railway will carry life and prosperity into the Siberian steppes. In exploiting China the Russians will with the same stroke throw Siberia open to improvement; they will rapidly make it one of the greatest centers of agricultural production in the world. In the economic development of China, Russia has nothing to lose and everything to gain.

MY UNCLE AND MY AUNT.

An Ingenious French Writer Explains a Facetious Expression That is Very Common.

An ingenious French writer has been explaining to a curious world why the pawn-broking establishments are called "my aunt" (ma tante), says the London News. Prince de Joinville, son of Louis Philippe, was kept very short of money in his youth. One day the father noticed that the prince was not wearing a splendid gold watch that had been given to him by his mother. "Where is your watch?" asked the bourgeois king. "At my aunt's," was the reply. Princess Adelaide was interrogated on the subject, but she knew nothing about it. Then the young scapegrace admitted that he had pawned it. "My aunt," therefore, became proverbial for the most deplete. But then, it may be asked how it comes about that the pawnbroker in England is facetiously spoken of as "uncle" because the French say "aunt." Here in England everything goes by contraries. The French coachman drives on the right, the Englishman on the left; the French soldier has red trousers, the English soldier a red coat; the Frenchman eats an oyster out of the hollow half of the shell, the Englishman out of the flat half; the French epicure drinks champagne after dinner, the English epicure during dinner, and so forth. It is all a case of pure "cussedness."

A Deserted Village.

Deserted villages are common enough in the east, but from other causes than burst booms commonly. Damariscove, Me., has now no inhabitant but a light-house keeper, though some summer houses are this year to be built. Two hundred years ago, in arranging for the Indian campaigns, Damariscove could furnish a company of men.

From One of Madison's Fair Maidens.

RUTHTON, KY., May 15.

Dear Editor: This beautiful evening, while I have a few leisure moments, I will try to write a short letter to the dear old HERALD. But I am sorry to say I haven't received my paper for several weeks. Would like to know what and where the delay is. William Vencil's paper comes up every week, on Friday or Saturday, and I cannot see why mine does not, when they both come to the same office. If you send it, it surely must be my postmaster's fault. War is in the mouth of every one in this locality. They have war for breakfast, dinner and supper everywhere you go, and from what I can read it is that way the world over.

The wet spring has caused a great deal of sickness in and around Ruthton. Mrs. John C. Elswick has been very low with grip. Lots of grip, pneumonia and chills.

I must say I wish THE HERALD readers had been here last week to help eat fish. We have had a fine chance of fish. A large crowd of young folks are going to the river fishing when the boys get their corn worked. I will write and tell you our luck. That is, if this ugly composed and badly written letter is printed.

Success to THE HERALD and its many readers. ROSA B. ELLSWICK.

This is to certify that we handled Nelson's Hawaiian Hair Elixir for ten months, and can truthfully say that the sale of it is phenomenal. We have sold ten times as much of it as of all other hair preparations combined, our sales amounting to over 600 bottles, seven other drug stores in the city handling it at the same time. We consider it by far the best hair preparation on the market.

KENTUCKY STATE TROOPS.

Young Men's Christian Association Work Among Them.

When the call came from President McKinley for the state troops, the various state committees of the Young Men's Christian Associations throughout the country were quick to realize their responsibility, and meet it with the characteristic energy of the organization. The association recognizes the fact that wherever large bodies of men come together, there a field of service is open to them. The state executive committee of the Kentucky associations realizing the needs of the state troops now mobilizing at Lexington, and becoming exposed to the perils of military life in the camp and in the field, has decided to begin at once a work among the soldiers at the state camp, similar to the work the association has carried on for several years at the state guard encampment.

An association tent will be placed with each of the three Kentucky regiments, and will have a competent, experienced secretary in charge. Besides the Christian influences of the association in the camp, the tent will be supplied with reading matter, writing material, recreative games, and other features that will be helpful to the soldier boys, the aim being to make these places of resort home-like and attractive to the men, and surround them with wholesome and uplifting influences. When they move from the state camp the association organization, equipment and secretary will accompany them to the field.

Gen. Miles of the United States army has expressed his cordial approval of the distinctive association tent work as a useful agency in all camps of the army, and the colonels of the three Kentucky regiments, Castleman, Gaither and Smith, welcome the work with heartiness and warmest endorsement.

The expense of this work will be borne entirely by voluntary subscriptions. It is estimated that $1,000 will be needed for the equipment and maintenance of the work in the three regiments for six months. Contributions in any amount are requested to be forwarded at once to the Army Committee, Kentucky Young Men's Christian Associations, Fourth and Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

Some Plain Facts.

Grave errors, injustice, wrongs of greater or less degree, arise from lack of knowledge of the truth, and more frequently from deception.

The most infamous case on record of deception and injustice is the attempt to demonetize silver as a money of final redemption in the United States.

There is no learned judge, skilled lawyer, or court of justice that is capable of reconciling the effort with the constitutional laws that govern the issue of money in this country.

The people have been deceived, officials in power, chosen to administer justice under the laws, have ignored their sworn duty, and given aid to the scheme that has paralyzed industry, reduced property values one-half, and beggared millions.

There is no authority of law, either specific or by inference, by which gold alone is made the only money with which to discharge debts, either public or private. The effort to make it so is unconstitutional and a national calamity.

Plain and ample information, facts, and truth, concerning this almost successful scheme to corner the wealth of the people, is now being printed in the Cincinnati Enquirer, a newspaper which the combined power of money has failed to muzzle or buy.

The Weekly Enquirer is only 75c. a year. The address is Enquirer Company, Cincinnati, O.
